Roles

Perth Theatre Project

Board members are the fiduciaries¹ who steer the organization towards a sustainable future by adopting sound, ethical, and legal governance and financial management policies, as well as by making sure the non-profit has adequate resources to advance its mission.

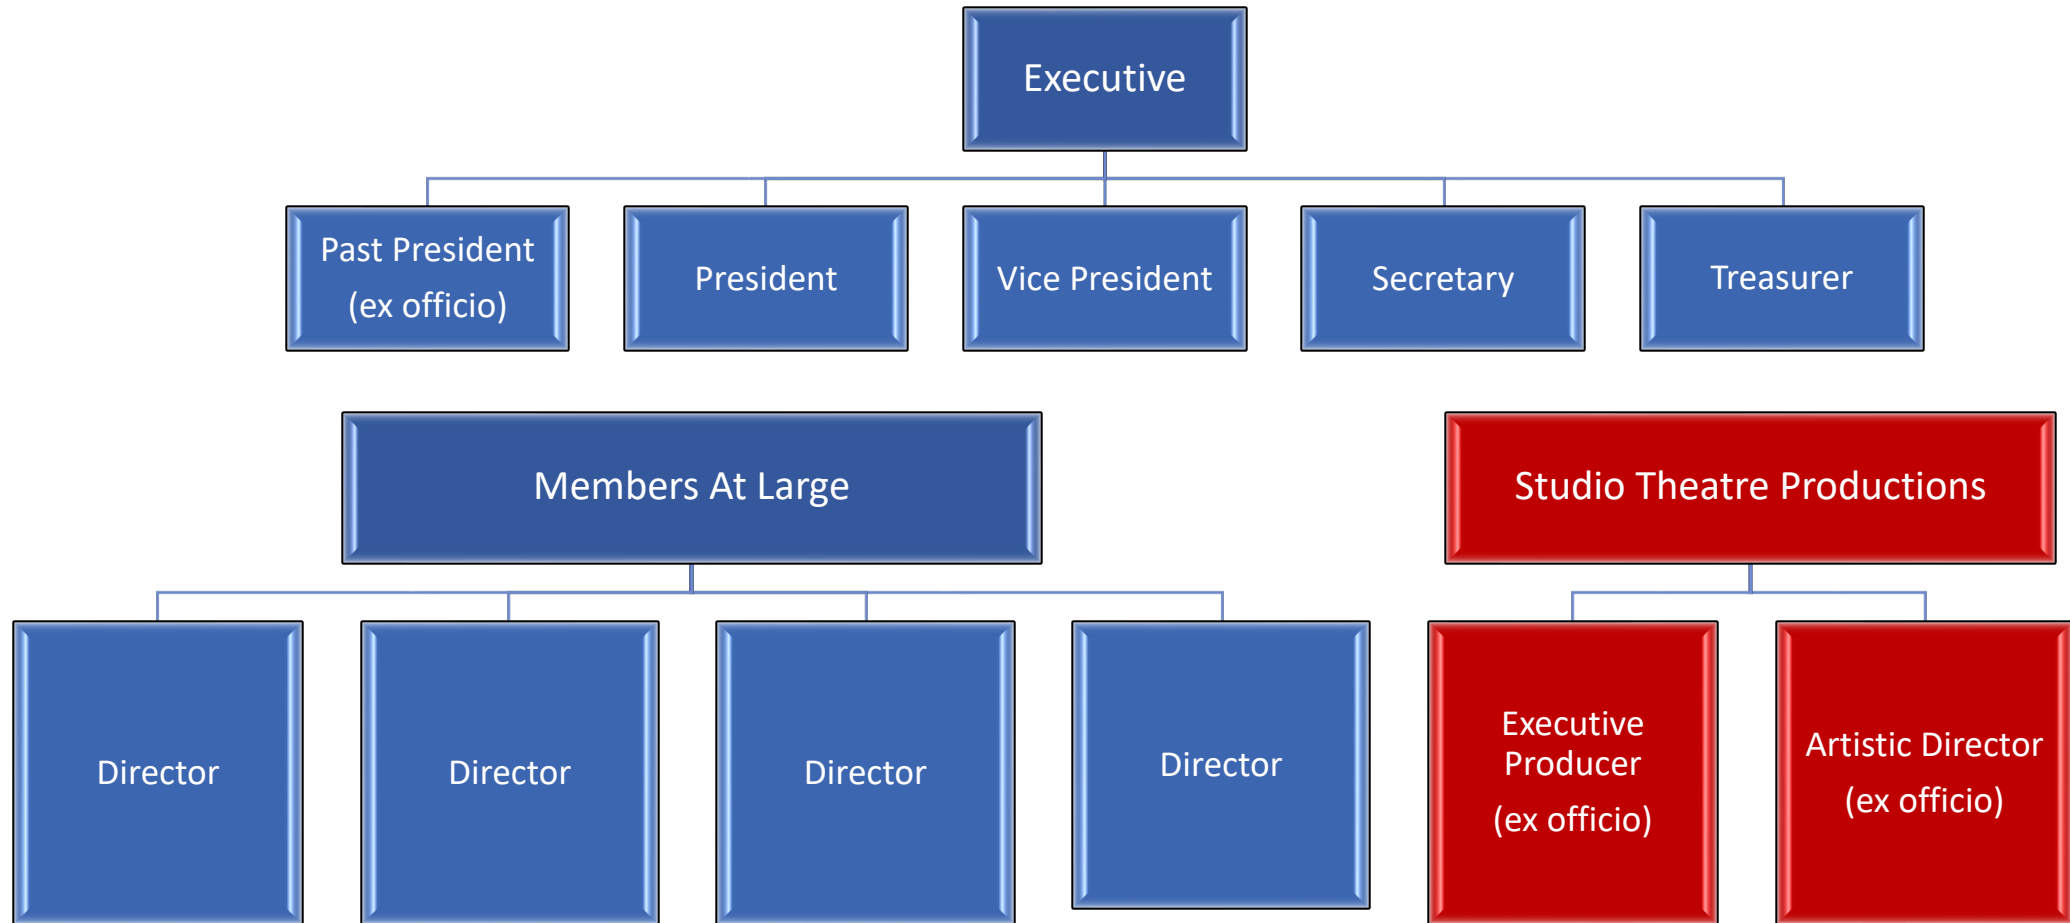

Studio Theatre Productions

Committees do the work of putting on live theatre performances

¹ someone to whom property or power is entrusted for the benefit of another.

PTP Board of Directors Structure

Current by-laws require a minimum of 5 board members

Responsibilities of the board

As the highest leadership body of the organization and to satisfy its fiduciary duties, the board is responsible for:

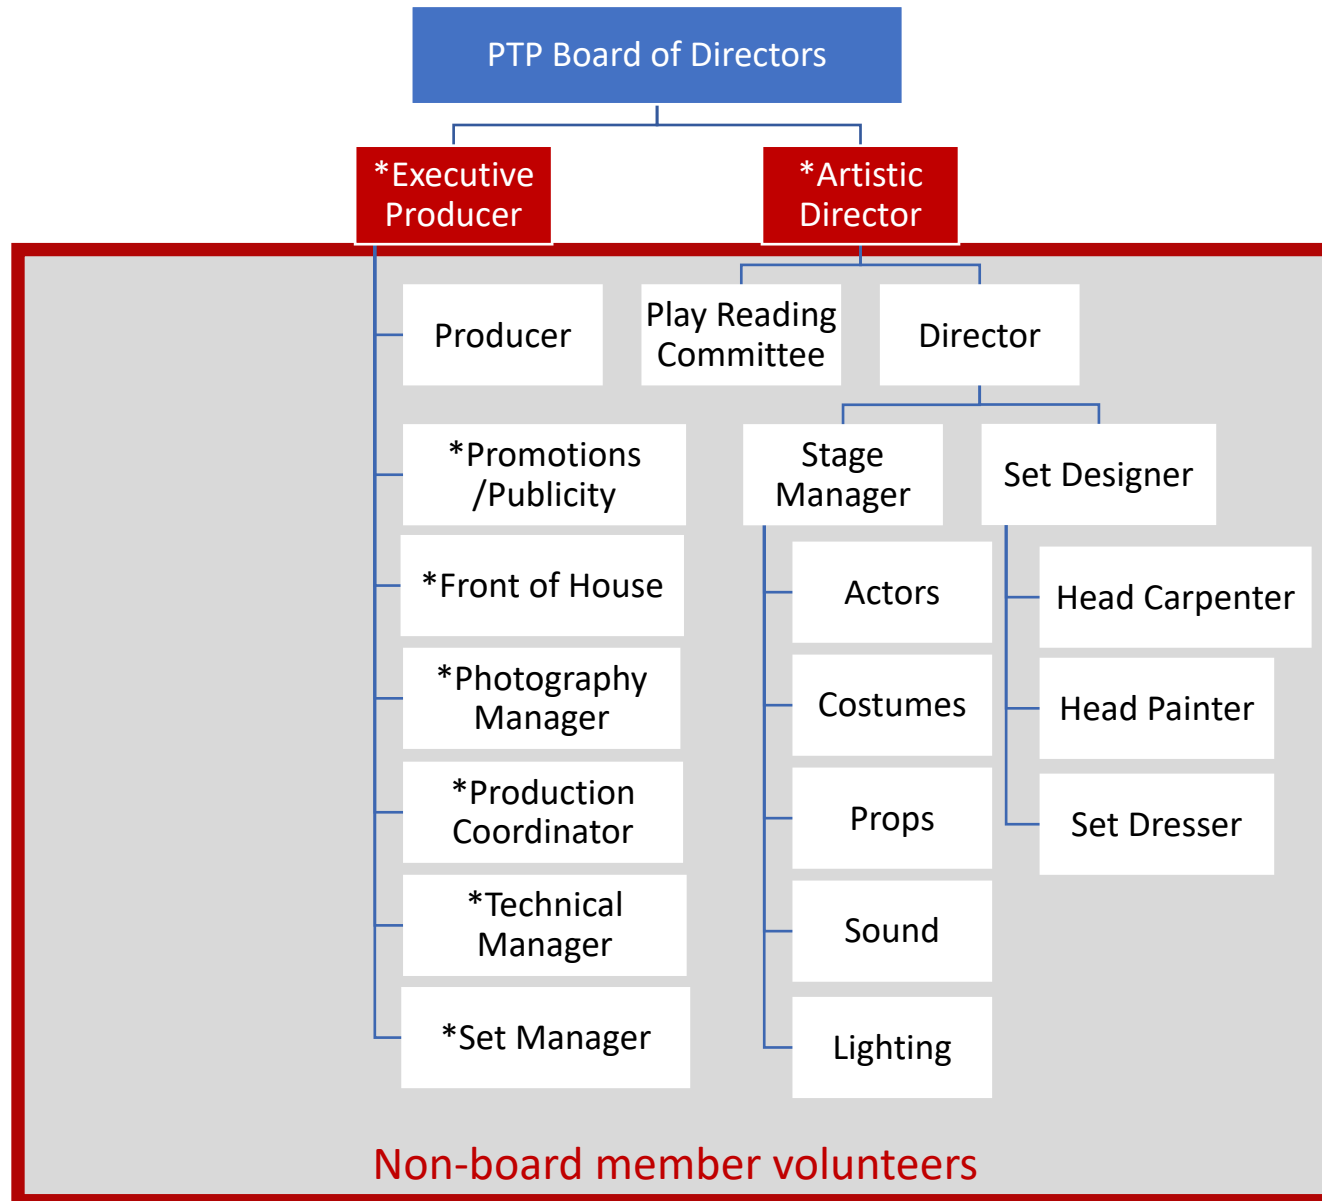

- Determining the mission and purposes of the organization
- Selecting and evaluating the performance of the CEO/executive director
- Strategic and organizational planning
- Ensuring strong fiduciary oversight and financial management
- Fundraising and resource development
- Approving and monitoring the organization's programs and services
- Enhancing the public image of both PTP and STP
- Assessing its own performance
